A Photograph of the Khury Family in Ramla, 1920s
