

the palestinian
museum

جمعية غير حكومية Non-Governmental Association

0125.01.1288

A Paper Clipping Documenting the Spelling of "Muharraqa", a Depopulated Village Northeast of Gaza

A paper clipping documenting the spelling of "Muharraqa", a village northeast of Gaza. In 1945, the village had a population of 580, but Jews had it depopulated during the 1948 Nakba and established the Yakhini colony.

