

0142.12.0029

A Short Video Documenting the Performance and Training of "The Gaza Monologues", a Play Implemented by Pegasus Theatre and Directed by Ashtar Theatre

A short video documenting the performance and training of "The Gaza Monologues", a play implemented by Pegasus Theatre and directed by Ashtar Theatre. The play consists of several personal stories from Gaza that have been sent to the world and performed during a mutual time on 17 October 2010 by more than 1500 young performers in more than 50 cities located in 26 states all around the world. "The Gaza Monologues" was written in 2010 following the Israeli Occupation's assault on Gaza between 2008-2009. Whilst the new and updated performance was written by the same students after another assault in 2014. Director: Muhammad 'Eid and was re-directed by Bayan Shbib.

In December 2008 and January 2009 over 22 days, the Gaza strip was bombed by Israeli forces.
1,380 Palestinians were killed,
431 of whom were children.
1,872 children were wounded.