

0294.01.0437

A Photograph of Zaytouna Mosque Door in the Occupied City of Acre

Taken in the 1990s, this photograph shows the door of the Zaytouna Mosque, which was built in 1745 during the reign of Zahir al-Omar al-Zaydani, it was established in the place where the Church of Maria Magdalene was built in the Crusader period and is located south of Zawiya al-Shazliya, in which there is the tomb of Sheikh Hussein Abdul Hadi, who was the Imam of the mosque.

