Diaries of Khalil Sakakini, 29 November 1940

Handwritten, this archival item documents the continuation of the diaries of Khalil Sakakini on Friday, 29 November 1940, where he continues his conversation with the Consul of America, Wordsworth emphasizing that his humanity comes before his patriotism, discussing the Arabs thoughts on the Jewish matter, explaining the two cycles the Jewish went through, in the first, they came to the country to die and Arabs did not object, and in the second they came to live, and Arabs did not object as well, however, now they have come to own and build their existence on our remains, and this is unacceptable.
