Basketball of Shaheed Nizar Eideh, from the '100 Shaheed - 100 Lives' Exhibition, February 2001

Taken by photographer Isabel de la Cruz, this photograph shows a basketball belonging to Shaheed Nizar Eideh from Ramallah city to a forcibly displaced family from Ramla city. On September 30, 2000, Eideh headed to school, and after school he went out to the clashes area between the youth and Israeli forces in the city where he was shot and martyred. This item was displayed at the "100 Shaheed - 100 Lives" exhibition held at the Khalil Sakakini Cultural Center in Ramallah on February 20, 2001. The idea of the exhibition emerged weeks after the eruption of the Second Intifada (Al-Aqsa Intifada) as a tribute to all those murdered in the struggle. However, as the number of Shaheeds was exponentially increasing, the exhibition was limited to honoring the first 100 Shaheeds representing all areas of Historic Palestine.
